JCS-DIA ORIENTATION

PURPOSE

The objectives of the JCS-DIA ORIENTATION are to introduce the class members to key officials of the CIA, who will discuss the organization and responsibilities of the Agency's major components, and to cover the Agency's inter-relationships with the other agencies and departments in the Intelligence Community.

The two-day, semiannual JCS-DIA ORIENTATION was started in February 1964 and developed from PROJECT USEFUL which began in 1950. Confirming the benefits to be derived from greater understanding among CIA, JCS, and DIA senior officials, the Director of the Defense Intelligence Agency in late 1964 began a companion two-day briefing for JCS and CIA senior employees called PROJECT HELPFUL. This has been repeated semiannually since then at the Defense Intelligence School at Anacostia.

SECURITY

1. The badge you have been issued is to be worn exposed while you are in the Headquarters Building. When you leave the building at the end of the first day surrender your badge at the Southwest exit to the receptionist or guard. Use this same Southwest entrance (exit) on Wednesday.

2. This numbered program folder is for your information and reference during the two-day orientation; it should be left on your desk. Because of the classification of the program and its contents, it must be collected for safekeeping from every desk at the end of each day.

3. We ask you not to take written notes. The information offered in this orientation is provided on the basis of your "need to know." Further discussion of this orientation program either at CIA or at your parent organization should also be on a "need to know" basis.

JCS-DIA ORIENTATION

ADMINISTRATION

1. Please be sure that your car is parked in WEST parking lot, using any available space there which is not marked reserved--unless other prior arrangements have been made for your car. (We wish to avoid having any visitor receive a parking ticket and subsequent fine.) Permits are not required for parking in West lot.

2. Please enter the Headquarters Building via the Southwest Entrance. A receptionist will be on duty there after 0815.

3. Incoming telephone messages will be taken for members of this class by the Training Staff. The telephone extension on which you can be reached during your two days of briefings here is: [redacted] extension

[redacted] Messages will be placed on the bulletin board at the rear of the classroom. A government phone is in the rear of the classroom and a public telephone is nearby in the outside main corridor.

4. Lunch will be available in the North Cafeteria, or the Rendezvous Room, both located on the first floor on the West end of the building. The Rendezvous Room offers a buffet ($2.10). A section of the North Cafeteria has been reserved for this class.
